MODESTY

The most suitable dress for everyone is modesty. This is the finest dress for the faithful, the most splendid dress for those who pray, the most beautiful dress for the servants: Without modesty everything is just ugly.

Some people believe that their prayer is better than that of others. They don’t look at the weak, simple people. — Those who look at Mecca from a standing position look at Allah Almighty, the Maliku l-Mulk.

Here we are not on the level of reason, of arrogant knowledge, but on the level of faith, the level to unseen worlds. What we see is not Iman. Real Iman opens a doorto unseen worlds.

O people, we must ask for heavenly love, heavenly joy, heavenly refreshments.

There are seven heavens. According to the power of your faith you lift up to the heavens. There are no ways to the heavens except those of Saiyyidina Muḥammad.

»Tell people: ,If you indeed love Allah, follow me, and Allah will love you and will forgive you your sins.« (3:31)

A saint has been raised to the fourth heaven. And he found there an infinite ocean. But not of water, but of sand. And every grain of sand was like our earth. And on each of them so many creatures who cried out a praise to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds. — You see, there is no reason to be proud!

Today ist the first of the month of Safr.
