الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَتَطْمَئِنُّ قُلُوبُهُمْ بِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ أَلَا بِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ تَطْمَئِنُّ الْقُلُوبُ

» al-ladhīna āmanū wa taṭma'innu qulūbuhum bi dhikri l-llāh, ala bi dhikri l-llāhi taṭma'innu l-qulūb. «

We as Muslims making different kinds of Ibadat: Praying, Dhikru Llah, Fasten, Salawattun 'ala n-nabi. But the question is, if it is acceptable in Devine Presence.

To make every action acceptable in Devinly Present is: to be in love. If you are doing to with love, it is acceptable in Devine Present. Whole worshipping without love it is refused. Not acceptable. Praying is then only like a kind of Gymnastique.

We need someone to succeed the Prophet in the love of Allah, we need to feel the love of Allah and the Messenger in our souls – »looking to those people, you will be reminded of Allah« – until we can find a way connecting us with God's love in heaven.

This is the task of the Awliyā'.

If you meet a good man there is a sign by which you can to know if this is a sheikh or a guide, and it is that all problems disappear in his presence. When you sit with him, you are happy. No problem!

And when you visit him, to ask him about something, you forget to ask, and the paper with the question has disappeared. — That's how is the presence of the Avliyya.

With Dhikru Llah Devinly Love comes into your heart: »

Those who believe and find peace in their hearts by Dhikru Llah: Surely there is peace of heart by Dhikru Llah! «
