Mind and Mentality: Questions to The Pope

As-salāmu ‘alaikum!

Welcome to the servants of the Lord of Heaven for a visit for a new understanding about Islam. Islam is always new, it never becomes old.

Madad yā Sulṭān al-awliyā’.

It is not our understanding that is new, but it is as if we are using our understanding for the first time about the Qur’ān. The Qur’ān is always new, and always being renewed for the benefit of mankind. But people never try to understand or develop their understanding. People think that the holy Qur’ān is an old book, also some people understand it upside down.

Peoples' minds are blocked, locked, and never move. Their heads became hard like rocks, and they never try to make their understanding increase a little bit.

I heard that the chief of the western church is very keen to change the way that their people dress. Because their heads are like rock they think that if we change our dress we ourselves would change. If we put something on our heads or over our shoulders they think that we all become someone else. They think that the titles they use, that is their invented titles, for instance catholic or orthodox, will give them something through themselves that other people cannot have.

I am mentioning this because the chief of the catholic church was speaking about something beyond our mentality, beyond our minds. That means he was talking about something that our mentalities can never accept. And he claims that their way is the most suitable for the minds and understanding of people. This is a hundred percent wrong.

What kind of principles can they say, that they are using for Christianity? I heard that he blamed Islamic principles for forcing the minds of people. That means that Islamic principles make the minds of people hard and difficult. He means to say that Christian principles work closely with mind and mentality, but Islam does not work with mind and mentality. How can he say this? Which principle from Christianity does mind or mentality accept? Which mind or mentality accepts that the Lord of Heavens could be killed on a cross? Do our minds accept this?

Do peoples' minds and mentality in the 21st century say, yes, God may be crucified? What is that? How can they say that Christianity works with mind and Islam doesn't! Who gave them the authority to speak like that? May be they are karpan. They see the wrong as true, and the true as wrong. There are some eyes that see red as green and green as red. How can it be that the Lord of Heaven was crucified by his creatures! Which mentality will accept this? And everywhere they are establishing the cross and making that cross sacred.

O people, if a person's head has been cut with an ax, do you always take that ax and kiss it? – [Maulana takes a piece of tissue and kisses it, again and again] – You cut your Lord's head! That is their mentality. Who will accept this? That Pope must be taken from his position, because he has lost his mentality and his words will never be accepted by mind or mentality.

Are they saying that Jesus is Lord, Lord of creation, then – astagbfrullab – was he through the womb of Maryam, Mary, or not? He was in the womb of Mary. Yes, Sir? And he was among so many things inside, if it was opened now you would see sewage channels. How was he in these sewage channels until he was born? That is their mentality: to put their Lord among sewage channels. For nine months. And they are claiming that this is suitable for our minds.

Now another point. From where did he come out? As a child he came out from another side? From the back or the front? From where? From the mouth? How can such a thing in Christianity be accepted by mentality? He came out as a perfect man or he was a child? Mary was carrying him in her chest and bringing him to the people? He was a little baby, yes?

How was the Lord of Heavens a little baby like other children! Did he come with a beard and say: "O Mary, I am your Lord."? "Tell them: Bow to me?" – Did he say this?

O Pope, you are claiming that Christianity works with mind and mentality and Islam doesn't. I am saying it is the other way round. I am full up to here with such ignorance.

When he was growing up was his mother feeding "her Lord", suckling "her Lord" at her breast? Is that suitable for our mentality? The new Pope is saying this, and I am questioning him. I am nothing in Islam, I am the weakest one, but I can destroy all falsehood. What is he saying? That she was feeding her Lord at her breast, and he is claiming that Christianity and mind go together?

O Pope, was his mother changing the baby Jesus downstairs or not? Was she cleaning her Lord in front and behind? How then you are claiming that Jesus is the Lord of heaven? What is that nonsense? If he is the Lord his first characteristic is to be powerful, not to be weak. God cannot be weak in front of his own creatures. Yes, or not? Why was Jesus Christ running away if he was Lord and he has that power of god? How can he escape from his servants? The Lord and creator, how can he escape from his creation, from his creatures? He was afraid of them that they would touch him and give him trouble? That is their mentality still in the 21st century. They claim that they are working according to mentality and mind. How is that?

Perhaps the Pope because he is getting older is making everything upside down.

Here is another point. Ohh! While he was growing did he eat and drink, or not? He was not an angel. If he was the Lord he created them. If Jesus is the Lord of heaven, all heavenly beings he created, and angels never need to eat or drink. How was he giving such a power to angels and he himself is excluded. If he himself has not something then how can he give it to people? Angels live for billions or millions of years, and they don't need to eat or drink. And they are so powerful. If he is the Lord of heaven how could he create these angels, and also be so weak? This is the Christianity that the Pope is claiming works with mind and mentality. He must be ashamed that he claims such things.

And I am asking the Pope, was your Lord going to the toilet? Hahaha! Was the Lord of Heavens going to the toilet? No, not going?

We thought that after the Polish Pope would come an Italian. But the new Pope came from a Protestant people. The new catholic Pope came from German people. Do you think that the title of Pope was granted from Heaven, or the cardinals gave it? Has he been granted that highest rank from heaven or from the cardinals?

Some cardinals say he is not a good one, some others say he is a good one. And I am saying to the Cardinals also: Was your Lord eating and drinking? They should say yes. Because he was not an angel. And if someone is eating and drinking will everything remain inside or will it try to come out? Do you think that he was going to the toilet? They must say yes, they can't say no. They must be blamed for claiming that the Lord of heaven could enter the toilet.

Even in the 21st century this is their mentality and they claim that Islam is not going with mind and mentality. What shall we say? That means they have lost their understanding, lost their mentality, lost their minds. They have lost their knowledge – I don't know how to describe them.

And now this word that they are using about the Seal of Prophets. The Seal of Prophets never said, "I am your Lord", he said, "I am the servant of our Lord". Christians say, "Jesus is the Lord of heaven", Islam says that the Prophet says, "I am the servant of the Lord of heaven". Which one is closer to the mind's understanding and mentality? Are they not ashamed to say such things and make the Islamic world attack them? For what?

Islam is the right way. Yes, Islam used the sword, we have been ordered to use the sword against Shaytan and shayṭānic groups who are against the truth, and who follow Shaytan's ways. They are like dragons, and we have permission to use swords against dragons, not to kill everyone, no. If they accuse us that we used the sword, and that our Prophet used the sword, and that Islam was spread by the sword, I am asking them, if Jesus Christ never carried a sword or even a knife how have Christians been using the sword for 2000 years? If in Christianity the use of the sword is forbidden, why have Christian nations for 2000 years been using swords to kill each other? If they are real followers of Jesus Christ they shouldn't carry even a small knife. But they are using every kind of weapon to destroy humanity on earth as you can see now.

Why does he not blame those nations who are killing, and burning, and destroying everything, and then say that Islam was spread by the sword. He is not speaking the truth. Yes, we used the sword, we used it to take away tyrants, to take away shayṭānic groups, and prevent shayṭāns from harming people. We used it and we are still using it.

Why do they not accuse Moses of using a sword. Why do they not accuse David, peace be upon him, and he was a king and a prophet. Why does the Pope not accuse king Sulayman who was also a king and a prophet. Why does he only attack Islam?—But Islam is the perfect religion in spite of those people who are its born enemies and refuse Islam.

Allāh gives, and he gave power to the seal of Prophets. While he was in the womb of his mother his father passed away, and his mother passed away when he was just four years old. He was an orphan. He had no armies, no power, no money, no treasures, and everyone was attacking him and trying to harm him, asking to defeat him and to kill him.

But the Lord of Heavens said, “O My beloved one in My Divine Presence, don't worry, don't fear, I am with you! And your religion is going to cover the whole world, one day may be the whole world will surrender to Islam, to Me and declare your prophecy.”

May Allah forgive us and give us a good understanding. Yā Allāh, ant Allāh, ant Allah.

I am sorry to say that Muslims have been cheated by Christians. And they are following the Christian world, not using Islamic principles. Everyone is running to be a westernised Muslim, but there is not such a thing as a westernised Muslim, no, there are just Muslims. And we have principles, and we are Muslims following the principles of Islam.

And whoever keeps the principles of Islam has been granted honour in this life, in their physical being, and also with spiritual power. We have spiritual power also. When Jesus Christ comes he is going to show this power and condemn them.

May Allah forgive us and bless you.

For the honour of the most honoured one in His Divine Presence Sayyidinā Muḥammad ﷺ, Fāṭihah.

Oh, yā rabbī is sending this. ◆
